JACK gatecrashes Fox party

Saturday 29 September 2007 - 09:12:44

JACK fm is causing a stir already, and the station has not even launched yet. JACK bosses recently gate crashed Fox FM's 18th birthday party, giving out a special birthday card "love from Jack - Oxfordshire's newest radio station".

The card said "Have a great night" and suggested that their invite must have got lost in the post. Below we have found one of the invites and represent it here for you as an exclusive:

JACK fm is owned by Absolute Radio and will launch in October.
